Indian Killed on Track.

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it's that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable, and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

THE HYDE PARK INN.

C. E. Savery, well known to traveling men as the landlord who helped to make deviously popular the Brandon Inn, has purchased the Hotel Phoenix, revamped and rejuvenated it with new paper, new paint, new plumbing, new cooking and heating arrangements, and given to it the name of Hyde Park Inn. The hotel is comparatively new, beautifully situated, and Landlord Savery will extend a hearty welcome to those from either country or city who are looking for a home-like, restful place to spend a few days or a few weeks.

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest From Different Sections.

A well-known Burlington hotel entertained some distinguished guests the other day, when Sir Wilfred Laurier and Lady Laurier of Ottawa, Ont., Sir Frederick and Borden of England stopped enroute from Blue Point to Bretton Woods, N. H.

There were thirty-three deaths in Burlington in the month of July and of these three were accidental and one resulted from the heat. Two of the accidental deaths were from drowning and one from a gun-shot wound. The oldest person to die was 83 years old and eight children were under two years of age. None of the deaths was due to contagious diseases.

Sidney E. Hinsdale, a Charlotte hay dealer and apple buyer, has just purchased a farmer in St. Alexander, P. Q., 13 loads of hay for which he paid $14 per ton. Several months ago, the farmer was offered $23 per ton for his product, but he preferred to wait.

William Conant has been sexton of Immanuel church at Bellows Falls for the past 35 years.

An iron tank weighing six tons will be used for the water supply at the Austin institute in Brattleboro. Five two-horse teams were required to haul the tank to its location.

Miss Viola Mack of Rutland was grabbed by the throat by a strange man the other night, but she managed to struggle free and shriek, whereupon her assailant fled.

Burlington officers are looking for a man who attempted the bogus check gag this week. He pursued the game of buying shoes and taking the remainder of his fraudulent check in change. There were several victims.

Angus Gale, a Stowe agriculturist, sold two hogs recently which weighed 870 pounds. He received $54.25.

Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, have reported the grant of a patent on a shield for automobiles to A. R. Thomas of Hardwick.

Thad Forrest of Middlebury is recovering from a serious inflammation caused by a poisonous weed with which he came in contact while working in the hyfield. He went to a Burlington hospital for treatment.

Aaron Frost, who died in Groton the other day at the age of 82 years, was a lifelong resident of the town.

Newbury's old home week exercises will open Sunday with a union service in the Methodist church at which Rev. Joseph E. King, D. D., of Fort Edward, N. Y., will preach. Doctor King is a former principal of Old Newbury seminary. The celebration will end Friday night.

An attempt will be made this fall to revive the Wilmington fair and cattle show. Public spirited citizens of the village are lending their aid to the project.

Edward Langeley and R. W. Turnbull, two Manchester, N. H., young men, are making a tour of Vermont on motorcycles. They assert that Vermont roads have been wonderfully improved in the past few years.

It has been discovered that William Blanchard of Rutland, who is suffering with blood poisoning, was infected while painting.

George Schmidt, a native of Rutland, is to fly in his Thor-Schmidt bi-plane at the Addison county fair in Middlebury this fall.

Stowe's new check list, recently issued, now contains 500 names, an increase over last year.

An extra edition of the Morrisville Messenger, date of August 7, contains an article entitled, "Old Morrisville," an early history of the town, interestingly written by Hon. H. H. Powers.

Large quantities of asbestos are being taken from the deposits in Eden these days. On the steamer "Bosnia," which sailed from Boston yesterday for Germany were shipped 380,925 pounds of the product. The mines are connected with Hyde Park by excellent automobile highways and they are the goal of a good many tourists during the summer.

The Vermont State School of Agriculture at Randolph has many applications for the fall term, indicating that the new institution has found its place in the state. The school was found by special legislative act and the resources now consist of what was the faculty at the state normal school equipment, income from school and permanent endowment. The state also appropriated $20,000 for the purchase of land, tools, machinery and stock, providing also annual maintenance fund of $10,000.

Places for 42 fresh-air children have been found in and about Northfield and the youngsters will begin to arrive next week.

Charles A. Plumley of Northfield has announced his candidacy for representative from that town in the coming session of the legislature. Mr. Plumley was assistant secretary of the senate in 1894 and has been clerk of the House for several sessions. If elected, it is believed that he will be speaker of the House.

Arthur W. Ruff, the newly engaged principal of People's academy, Morrisville, is a graduate of Schenectady, N. Y., high school and Yale college. During his senior year at New Haven he qualified for a Rhodes scholarship. He has been a member of the faculty at the Taft Preparatory school in Connecticut and principal of Richards high school, Newport, N. H.

Walter Hale of Stowe was struck on the head by the end of a broken belt while working in the Burt lumber mill Tuesday morning and narrowly escaped death.

During the month of July in Burlington, there were 46 births, 26 of which were boys. The youngest mother was 18 years and it was her third child. Her second child was born when she was fifteen and the first when she was 14, less than thirteen. The oldest mother was in her 42nd year and the last child was her tenth.

Ransom R. Chapin of Montgomery

Center shot a large buck deer, which he caught feeding in his oat piece one morning recently. Farmer Chasin dressed the animal and then reported his killing to the game warden.

W. V. Phelps and J. O. Kimball of Enosburg Falls have purchased a tract of land on Shipyard bay at Highgate Springs, which they will develop into a summer camp containing a number of cottages.

Rabbi H. Popkan of Utica, N. Y., has been elected rabbi of the Hebrew colony in Burlington and of all Hebrews in Vermont. The new rabbi is 36 years old and has reached the highest rabbinical class. He succeeds Rabbi Goodman, whose death occurred some time ago.

Poultney's new curfew law went into effect on the evening of August 1.

The so-called special water committee of the Rutland board of aldermen has been discharged, because, it is claimed, the members have spent $2,000 without anything tangible to show for it.

Relatives of George A. Waters, who disappeared from his home in Middlebury July 11, have received word from him which stated that he was in Quebec expecting to return home at any time. His wife, who received the letter, can give no reason why he left his home and business.

Justus Dart of Springfield, who has served that town as representative in both branches of the legislature, has been removed to a hospital in Hanover, N. H., to be treated for a complication of diseases. Owing to his advanced age, 78, he cannot submit to an operation. Mr. Dart was formerly state superintendent of education and is well-known in Vermont.

Charles Bartholomew paid a fine of $50 and cost in West Rutland justice court the other day for striking his neighbor, Frank Provost. The blow that caused Bartholomew to part with his money was delivered on Provost's veranda.

Mrs. E. I. Hall, a Rutland woman, who has long been identified with the movement for aiding poor children, is trying to find a home for four Benson children, whose father had deserted them. The mother, critically ill, although able to walk, came to Rutland and tried to secure aid. Overseer of the Poor P. H. Brouseau and Mrs. Hall took compassion of the family and will attempt to help the children as well as the mother.

Isaac Shapiro, a Middlebury peddler, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, giving his liabilities as $939.49, and his assets $383.96, of which $70 is claimed to be exempt.

Young Paul Eitpence of Rutland had a narrow escape the other night when a bicycle which he was riding crashed into an automobile. The shock threw the boy some distance into the air, but he was uninjured.

The first tri-state modified marathon championship, for which registered athletes of northern and eastern New York, Vermont, New Hampshire and western Massachusetts are eligible, will take place at the Rutland fairgrounds on Labor Day. The modified course will be sixteen miles in length.

Camp Billings, conducted by the Young Men's Christian association of Windsor county, closed its sixth successful season Saturday. Fifty boys and twenty young men were accommodated from one to four weeks and the visitors during this period numbered 50.

The annual field meeting of the Green Mountain club will be held on the summit of Camel's Hump with the Camel's Hump club of Waterbury, August 16. Forty campers can be lodged over night in the tents of the camp near the summit maintained by the Camel's Hump club. The idea of camping over night is adopted by the club to allow visitors the opportunity of seeing sunset and sunrise from the unique peak.

Brigadier General Forrest H. Hathaway, U. S. A., retired, who died suddenly in Portland, Ore., last week at the age of 67, was born in Vermont and enlisted in Co. G, 16th Vermont, in 1862. In 1867 he was appointed from Vermont second lieutenant of the 41st infantry brigade general in 1903. He was retired shortly afterwards at his own request.

An admirer of Theodore Roosevelt has presented the Burlington Progressive club with a finely mounted bull moose head. The trophy adorns the walls of the club's headquarters on Church street.

The death of Miss Gladys Bedell of Morrisville, a sophomore in the university of Vermont, Burlington, and a graduate in the class of 1909 at People's academy, occurred August 1. She belonged to the Kappa Alpha Theta society while attending college.

The boys of Camp Kill Kare, a Pennington seminary reception place on St. Albans bay, will give a minstrel show for the benefit of the worthy poor confined to the St. Albans city hospital.

Vegetation is advancing rapidly in the vicinity of Enosburg, although the weather is too cool for corn. Berries of all kinds are plentiful. On many farms having is finished, while on others the cultivation and hoeing of corn and potatoes have begun.

A suit alleging negligence with damages of $20,000 has been brought against the Rutland Railway, Light & Power Co., by Frank Hundley, as executor of the estate of Earl Clark, his brother-in-law, who was killed a few weeks ago in a trolley accident at Parson's corner.

A. H. Harvey's ginseng garden in Brattleboro is attracting a good deal of attention and others are planning to establish nurseries. Mr. Harvey has less than an acre under cultivation, but his profits are already $1,500 per year. Ginseng retails for $7 and $8 per pound.

$100—REWARD—$100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for each case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address H. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
